ALAMEDA COUNTY RIGHT TO FARM NOTICE

Alameda County permits operation of properly conducted agricultural operations within the County. You are hereby notified that the property you are acquiring an interest in may be located within 2,000 feet of agricultural land, agricultural operations or agricultural processing facilities or operations. You may be subject to inconvenience or discomfort from lawful agricultural or agricultural processing facilities operations. Discomfort and inconvenience may include, but is not limited to, noise, odors, fumes, dust, smoke, burning, vibrations, insects, rodents and/or the operation of machinery (including aircraft) during any 24-hour period. Should any dispute arise regarding any inconvenience or discomforts from an agricultural operations the parties may submit the dispute, within 30 days of the date of the occurrence, to the Alameda County Agricultural Advisory Committee created by the Board of Supervisors. This committee will provide mediation assistance for the parties involved. One or more of the inconveniences described above may occur as a result of agricultural operations which are in compliance with existing laws and regulations and accepted customs and standards. If you live near an agricultural area, you should be prepared to accept such inconveniences or discomfort as a normal and necessary aspect of living in an area with a strong rural character and an active agricultural sector.

Lawful ground rig or aerial application of pesticides (including herbicides, fungicides, rodenticides) and fertilizers occurs in farming operations. Should you be concerned about spraying, you may contact the Alameda County Agricultural Commissioner. Alameda County Right to Farm Ordinance does not exempt farmers, agricultural processors or others from compliance with law. Should a farmer, agricultural processor or other person not comply with appropriate state, federal or local laws, legal recourse may be possible by, among other ways, contacting the appropriate agency.

This notification is given in compliance with the Alameda County Code Section 6.28.080. By initialing below, you are acknowledging receipt of this notification.

Answer these questions to the best of your knowledge. If any of the questions are answered "No," your home is likely to have an elevated/disclosable earthquake risk. If you do not have actual knowledge as to whether these risks exist, answer "Don't Know." Questions answered "Don't Know" may indicate a need for further evaluation. If your home does not have the feature, answer "Doesn't Apply." If you corrected one or more of these risks, describe the work on a separate page. The page numbers in the right-hand column indicate where in this guide you can find information on each of these features.
